First Baptist Church in Atlanta, Texas, uses only the Bible as its basis for faith and practice. All employees and volunteers are to believe as such, be active in church and to live lives pleasing to Christ as our Lord. FBC requires that every employee or volunteer be an example of the highest Christian virtue and personal decorum; serving as a role model to students. This includes, but is not limited to refraining from the illegal use of drugs and immoral conduct. I hereby certify that the information provided in this application and/or supplemental materials is freely given, true, and complete. I understand that any false, fraudulent, or misleading statements, answers, or information may be sufficient grounds for immediate rejection of my application, denial of employment, disciplinary action or dismissal from service if hired. I authorize First Baptist Church in Atlanta, Texas, to thoroughly investigate my work and educational history and verify data provided on this application or given during the selection process. Furthermore, I also authorize the FBC to conduct a criminal background investigation, check my driving record, or contact my present or past employers if necessary. I authorize all past employers mentioned herein to release employment information requested about me. I hereby release FBC, as well as any other agency, school, or company contacted from any liability or damage that may result from obtaining the information requested. FBC may make copies of my signed authorization available to those contacted.
